

Swedish Christmas Market

An Authentic Scandinavian Holiday Celebration

Presented by the Denver Chapter of SWEA
Swedish Women's Educational Association
<http://denver.swea.org>

Come celebrate the holiday season with Swedish foods, unique gifts and crafts, Swedish candy, musical entertainment, and activities for the children:

- Enjoy glögg and gingerbread cookies (included with entrance fee) in a for the season beautifully decorated room.
- Visit the café that offers open-face sandwiches, waffles, and other traditional foods, and bring home baked goods like lusekatter, cinnamon buns, and limpa-bread.
- Have fun at the children's craft corner and get a surprise at the fiskdamm ("go fish").
- Purchase lightly worn, good quality children's clothing from various Swedish brands like Polarn O. Pyret, Villervalla, Vincent, etc.

Entertainment starts at 12:30 pm and includes:

- Visit from tomten/Santa Claus
- Dancing around the Christmas tree
- Performance by the SWEA Swedish choir
- Lucia, the Queen of Lights, and her attendants perform at 2 pm with traditional songs

GOD JUL

When: Saturday, November 19, 2016 from 10:30 am to 3:00 pm
Where: Augustana Lutheran Church, 5000 East Alameda Ave. Denver
Admission: Adults $3, children (6-12) $1, children (5 and under) FREE